St. Stanislaus And Bay High Bands Receive Honors At State Band Contest at Jackson

For the first time since the beginning of the war the High School Bands of Mississippi have held their State Band Contest in Jackson. This was quite an event, with bands from every section of the State taking part. Bay St. Louis had the honor of having two bands in the contest, St. Stanislaus and Bay High, and the reports that we have received show that we have two highly trained bands, that are a credit to Bay St. Louis.

Bay High Band, heretofore in Class C competition moved up this year to Class B. The classification being based on the number of students in the High School.

The Bay High Band received a rating of excellent in concert and superior in marching. Sam Hardwick, student conductor of Bay High, received a superior rating.

St. Stanislaus in Class C competition received a rating of superior in both concert and marching. The band accorded much applause during the marching contest. St. Stanislaus presented one of the flashiest bands in this contest.

In the solo contest for band members the following St. Stanislaus boys received Superior ratings: A. A. (Toby) Scafield—E-Flat Clarinet.

Rodney Ranson—Twirling.
J. H. Bonck—Drum.
Norbert Carnovale—Cornet.
Robert Fayard and J. H. Bonck—Drum Duet.

To these youngsters who so ably represented their schools and to the conductors Brother Romuald and Pat Rooney we extend our congratulations.

Regular Monthly Meeting of Kings Daughters Circle

Regular monthly meeting of the Bay St. Louis Kings Daughters Circle was held at the hospital on Wednesday afternoon with the newly elected officers taking their seats.

Plans were completed for the annual hospital miscellaneous shower which will be held on Monday, May 13 from 2 to 5 at the hospital.

The public need not be told of the great amount of good the hospital has done and the many charity cases that have been restored to health in the hospital. The hospital is yours and you should not lose sight of the fact that you may need it. No one should be asked to contribute. The public should be glad of the opportunity of contributing so keep the date, time and place in mind and come to the shower with a gift for the hospital. The hospital needs linens, linens and linens but any gift that can be used in the hospital will be acceptable. If you are in doubt of what to give you may give the money and let the hospital decide how to use it. The important thing is that you give.

Officers attending the meeting were Mrs. Roger Boh, president; Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, first vice president; Mrs. Lucien M. Gex, second vice president; Mrs. G. Y. Blaise, secretary; Mrs. Leo Ford, treasurer; Mrs. M. A. Gilmore, historian.

Father William Clark Given Reception On Monday Evening

The ladies of the Parish of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church gave a reception on Monday evening at St. Joseph's Academy honoring Father Clark who left Bay St. Louis on Wednesday for the East Coast from where he will sail on May 20 for his former home in Ireland.

A short program of Irish melodies was given by Sandra Scafield, Barbara Hanson and Rosemary Ryan. The three girls sang "My Irish Song" and "Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Sandra Scafield sang alone "Mother Mac Chree" and Rosemary sang "Daddy Boy."

Seated on the stage before a background of green and white were Fathers Clark, Martin and Dominick and Forster Cammager who was master of ceremonies. In a few well chosen remarks, interspersed with the witticisms that only "Forster" can get by with he presented Father Clark with a purse as a parting gift from the ladies of the Parish. Father Clark it was clear to be seen, overcame not only by the generous gesture but by the unexpected gift as well but he managed to get across to the group his deep appreciation and summed up his deep feeling for the flock he was leaving by saying, "I will remember you in my prayers." Bay St. Louis was Father Clark's first appointment and he was truly touched at leaving.

Mr. Cammager also presented a small purse to Father Martin who is leaving shortly for a two weeks stay with his family—his 84 year old father. Several personal gifts were presented to Father Clark also.

Delicious punch and cake was served by the ladies and a social time was enjoyed at which Father Clark had more than one Man's share of hand shakes.

The good wishes of the people of Bay St. Louis and their prayers will follow Father Clark.

Mr. Engman was born in Bay St. Louis, December 12, 1894 and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Engman, now deceased. He was a graduate of St. Stanislaus and held a position of trust with the Hancock Bank for years and at the time of his death was vice president and cashier of the bank. He was past Master of the Bay St. Louis Lodge No. 129 F. and A. M. and was present patron of the Bay Chapter No. 423 of the Order Eastern Star and was a Shriner. He had served in World War I and was a member of the American Legion, a member of the Bay St. Louis Macabees and district commissioner of Boy Scouts.

Miss Udell Favre To Be Queen And Gerald V. Price, Jr., King

On Saturday night, May 4th the annual May Festival will be held at St. Joseph Academy auditorium. This is the most outstanding social function of the school year and interest starts to formulate for the next year ere this festival is over.

The first honors in the Eighth grade class will go to Alberta Elizabeth LaFontaine and the second honors to Hope Elizabeth Crasto. This graduation will be held on May 23 and Dan Russell will address the class.

Miss Anna Mae Benigno Member Class 1946 Bay High

In listing the graduates of Bay Hi School in last week's issue, we stated that Miss Gloria Benigno was a member of the graduating class. This was an error, and we were about 3 years late. Gloria graduated from Bay Hi in 1946. They have about reached the end of the line in the Benigno family and it has come to Anna Mae's turn to receive the honors, and certainly being the baby of the family, we should not allow the older ones to steal her thunder. Miss Anna Mae Benigno is a member of the Class of 1946 Bay Hi School.

He received his theological education at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky and received his Th. M. degree in 1937 and his Ph. D. degree in 1942. While in Louisville he was the first pastor of the Highland Baptist Mission which was organized as a church under his leadership. After leaving Louisville he was called to the First Baptist church at DeRidder, La., where he served as pastor for four years.

In January 1945 he accepted his present position as Professor of Greek and assistant Professor of New Testament in the Baptist Bible Institute at New Orleans.

Dr. Staggs is loved by all the students who study under him and is known throughout Louisiana as an excellent pastor, preacher, counselor and evangelist.

He will work here in connection with Mr. Plunkett Martin, Professor of Music at the Baptist Bible Institute and director of music in the St. Charles Avenue Baptist church, New Orleans. Last year Dr. Martin led a composite choir in the presentation of the famed "Messiah," which was presented in the St. Charles Avenue Baptist church for the public. FOOD NEEDED NOW

THE action of President Truman in requesting former President Herbert Hoover to hurry home, after advising newspaper men that the world food crisis is "worse than it has been painted," indicates that the officials of UNRRA have had a more accurate estimate of the world situation than that possessed by officials in this country, including Mr. Hoover prior to his trip abroad.

The President wants Mr. Hoover home to present "forcibly and dramatically" the European food picture. Evidently, the threat of starvation in the next 90 days has persuaded our official leaders that the United States must do more to provide food for the suffering men, women and children abroad.

Unfortunately, the appeal to the people of this country has been somewhat obscured by the conflicting attitudes of UNRRA, which demanded immediate and drastic action to secure food, and our own officials, including Mr. Hoover, who insisted that rationing was unnecessary. We have no way of securing the evidence upon which to determine the issue between the two groups but we do not hesitate to suggest that the Government take the action necessary to secure food for relief shipments. While it may be necessary for some of us to do without a little food, there is no danger that any of us will be hurt.

There has been very little publicity to indicate that the religious leaders of the nation have been greatly concerned with the plight of millions of starving people. This conclusion may be erroneous because it is possible that many clergymen have called the matter to the attention of their congregations without any publicity. Nevertheless, if there are responsible religious leaders who have failed to urge the members of their congregations to support the effort to feed helpless and innocent people, we hope that they will do so immediately.

FIGHTING PRICE CONTROL

IT should not escape notice that much of the complaining about OPA comes from "trade spokesmen," who obviously are only interested in the profits of those they represent.

When these experts assert that OPA has demoralized business they mean that it has cut down, or threatens to cut down, profits which members of their groups would like to have and which, they think, they could get in the absence of price controls.

We do not suggest that OPA has been perfect, that it successfully resisted all pressure groups or that it has worked out a system of pricing that is without error. We do insist, however, that the record of price inflation, after the first World War, has not been repeated during the course of the second great conflict.

There is in our opinion, great danger to the sound economy of the nation if the restrictions are removed before production catches up with demand. We are not concerned with the loss that will be suffered by people able to pay "any price" for what they want but with the serious curtailment of purchasing power that will adversely affect those with small, and fixed, incomes.

MAY, THE MONTH OF MARY

MAY is the month of Mary, dedicated to her who accepted the Sublimest vocation on earth with the words, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord." The announcement of her calling came to her from the Archangel Gabriel who revealed to her that she had been chosen to be the Mother of God. With fear and trembling at her own unworthiness of this Divine honor, yet with utter humility and confidence in God, Mary accepted her part in the Redemption.

Because of the glorious honors conferred on Mary by God, all true Christians turn to her, especially during the month of May, and say in supplication, "Pray for us sinners, now, and at the hour of our death." Loyal to the end the Sorrowful Mother stood at the foot of the Cross on which hung the dying Jesus and heard from His parched lips that farewell wish that she be a Mother to all human souls as she had lovingly been to him.

A true son will honor and pay reverence to his own mother on every occasion. During the month of May the best way of honoring the Mother of God, is the daily attendance at Mass and the frequent reception of her Divine Son in Holy Communion. Again the recitation of the Rosary is most pleasing to her. Let us determine to spend this beautiful month in fervent devotion to Mary the Queen of the May. Mary and she alone can preserve and save us in the midst of this world conflagration in which we now find ourselves. In fact, it is generally accepted that it will be through the immediate intercession of the Blessed Mother that peace will definitely be restored to humanity.

A very good act of charity for the practice of the entire student body would be to ask our Blessed Lady during the month of May to bless in a special manner each of the members of the Senior Class. This is their last month as students of St. Stanislaus. What is before them lies entirely in the hands of God. Let us ask the Blessed Mother to watch over and protect them more especially as they will soon be called to take their positions in shaping the future peace of the world.—St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw, April 27, 1946.

It must be nice to have a good, long vacation without any work to do; we wouldn't know.

Real estate is going up rather rapidly, according to the experts, who remind us that something happens when land values get too high. Those who were alive in 1921 know what it is.

Democracy grants to every individual both privileges and responsibilities. For an individual to insist on his rights but refuse his duties is to betray a serious, solemn trust.

ORTTE THEATRE SUNDAY - MONDAY "THE HOODLUM SAINT"

William Powell and Esther Williams

William Powell returns to the Ortte screen Sunday and Monday after an absence of more than a year in "The Hoodlum Saint," a stirring picture which offers the veteran M-G-M star the most powerful and affecting role of his career.

Cast as Terry O'Neill, veteran of World War I, Powell plays a man who weighs a faith in humanity against the pursuit of wealth and position and chooses the latter. It is not until he finds his structure of power fall to pieces under the impact of the stock market crash and until he loses the only woman who has ever meant anything to him in his life that O'Neill realizes the emptiness of his ambition and turns to the faith inspired by the Hoodlum Saint Dismas, patron of burns.

Powell reveals a striking versatility in this switch from his light-hearted "Thin Man" roles to portrait intense in its sincerity and emotional quality. It is without question his finest work to date.

Equally effective is the splendid work of Esther Williams, as the girl who ultimately guides Terry O'Neill to faith and happiness. Miss Williams abandons her swimming pools in this picture and emerges as an actress of top calibre.

Top support is given the stars by a flawless cast. Angela Lansbury again wins attention as a cynical night club singer of the New York speakeasy era; James Gleason has an outstanding characterization as "Sharp," a reformed hoodlum; Lewis Stone gives his usual persuasive touch to the role of Father Nolan. Others who merit praise include "Rags" Ragland, Frank McHugh and Slim Summerville and the discerning direction of Norman Taurog is evident in every scene of this touching and long to be remembered screen offering.

YOUR STATE HEALTH OFFICER SAYS

Mississippi Public Health today stands on the threshold of its greatest opportunity. In no time in the history of public health is our State have our people been so well informed in health matters and so determined in their demand for better health care.

The 1946 Legislature did monumental service in laying the foundation for a great state-wide program of hospital and medical care and also for medical education. All of these are basic and fundamental needs for the people's good health, welfare and prosperity. Mississippi citizens, I feel, are deeply grateful to the Governor and the Legislature for these and many other progressive, essential measures.

The response to the demand for better health facilities all over the country is seen in the national health survey of the American Hospital Association, the American Public Health Association's proposal for approximately 1200 city and county public health units covering the whole nation, and in the Surgeon General's program for integrated systems of hospitals, district hospitals, rural hospitals, and rural health centers that would take medical care down to the very grass roots.

Further evidence of the people's demand for health services is found in the proposal of many plans; both governmental and voluntary, for prepaid medical service.

The Hospital Facilities Division of the United States Public Health Service has recently issued a most helpful booklet discussing the Surgeon General's program. This booklet carries typical architects' plans for hospitals of various sizes, with functional descriptions and is an excellent, fascinating and valuable piece of work.

A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY - MONDAY "THE LOST WEEKEND"

Starring Ray Milland

Milland, who rose to the top of the screen ladder by playing sophisticated, romantic comedies, and who has since made his movie mark in other types of films has yet never had the opportunity to show himself the great dramatic actor he is. In "The Lost Weekend," which comes to the A. & G. Theatre Sunday and Monday, such an opportunity is given him and, according to those who have previewed the picture, he more than takes advantage of it.

"The Lost Weekend" tells the unusual and unforgettable story of five days out of a young man's life—five days of events as to make their reproduction on the screen an accomplishment of rare courage on the part of the producers and rare talent on the part of the performers. Milland, as Don Birnam whose weakness for liquor drives him to the depths of human degradation, is said to be absolutely superb in the role. Jane Wyman will be seen as his devoted sweetheart, who will not give up fighting for the man she loves and Philip Terry plays Milland's long-suffering brother. Others in the film are Howard da Silva, Doris Dowling and Frank Faylen.

The picture was produced by Charles Brackett and directed by Billy Wilder. The two men also wrote the screen play—one of the toughest assignments ever tackled, but one which should bring them enormous praise. Wilder will be remembered for his "Double Indemnity," among other films.

This 16th day of April, A. D. 1946.

Rockachaw "9" Loses To Gulfport

Last Saturday the Gulfport Commodores defeated the St. Stanislaus Rockachaws by a score of 10-2 on the Gulfport field. The Gulfport boys garnered only 6 hits, but took advantage of 9 Stanislaus miscues.

Melancon of the locals connected for a circuit clout in the third inning.

Saturday night, April 27th, proved a gala affair when the Juniors of St. Joseph Academy entertained their upper classmen with a dance. The S. J. A. auditorium was decorated to represent the inside of the circus tent. Just inside the auditorium door stood a huge clown face, the mouth of which proved to be the entrance into the big tent where myriads of all colored balloons and paper streamers were hung. There was the promised ball of confetti at the end of which was a charm—meant to predict their future. At a designated time all of the seniors were asked to get together, in the center of ring and were presented with a tiny fluffy live lamb, their mascot. St. Stanislaus orchestra under the direction of Brother Romuald, played many delightful numbers throughout the evening.

The young ladies of the Junior Class are to be congratulated as the evening was voted one of the most enjoyable Junior-Senior proms and the auditorium a scene of outstanding beauty.
